Petition for Action on Supervised Release

COMES NOW Mindy L. Threlkeld, probation officer of the court, presenting a petition for modification of the Judgment and Commitment Order of Terrence Lamont Whitfield, who, upon an earlier plea of guilty to 21 U.S.C. §841(a)(1), Distribution of At least 50 Grams of Cocaine Base, was sentenced by the Honorable Terrence W. Boyle, U.S. District Judge, on October 3, 2001, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 120 months. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 60 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.

Terrence Lamont Whitfield was released from custody on January 7, 2010, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.

On December 4, 2009, the conditions of release were modified to include the following additional conditions of release:

1. The defendant shall participate in mental health/sex offender treatment, evaluation testing, clinical polygraphs and other assessment instruments as directed by the probation officer. While under supervision in the Eastern District of North Carolina, the defendant shall further abide by the rules and regulations of the NCE Sex Offender Program.
2. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant. The search may be conducted by any law enforcement officer or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
3. The defendant shall undergo placement in a community corrections center for a period up to 90 days or until he establishes an acceptable residence approved by the probation office and shall abide by the conditions of that program during said placement.

On April 4, 2012, the court was notified that the defendant had tested positive for marijuana on April 4, 2012. The defendant was placed back in our Surprise Urinalysis Program and individual counseling with our local substance abuse counselor.
